CLAIM NO. F600389

DOYLE W. HOOD

CLAIMANT

RICK'S PLUMBING, INC.

RESPONDENT EMPLOYER

WESTPORT INSURANCE CORPORATION

RESPONDENT CARRIER

ORDER AND OPINION FILED MARCH 5, 2007

Hearing before Administrative Law JUDGE LINDA K. MARSHALL.

Claimant failed to appear.

Respondents represented by the HONORABLE MICHAEL C. STILES, Attorney at Law, Little Rock, Arkansas.

ISSUES

A hearing was held on January 31, 2007, to determine whether the above referenced claim should be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Although notified by certified mail, the claimant failed to appear.

The hearing was scheduled on respondents' Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Prosecution filed January 8, 2007, pursuant to Rule 13 of the Commission. A certificate of service was sent to the claimant and the Return Receipt revealed the claimant signed for the Notice.

After review of the documentary exhibits filed by the respondents, I find the claimant has not been diligent in pursuing his claim and, therefore, the respondents' motion is granted.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The claimant filed a Form AR-C on February 2, 2006, alleging a compensable injury to his lungs and respiratory system. Respondents controverted the claim in its entirety and denied benefits on April 4, 2006. A hearing was set for June 30, 2006; however, claimant's attorney advised on June 23, 2006, that the claimant did not wish to pursue his claim.

The respondents filed a motion to dismiss on January 8, 2007. Claimant's attorney advised that there was no objection to the motion to dismiss. The hearing notice was mailed on January 17, 2007, in accordance with Dillard v. Benton County Sheriff's Office, 87 Ark App. 379, 192 S.W.3d 287 (2004).

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

A review of the evidence shows the claimant has had ample opportunity to pursue his case but has advised that he does not wish to pursue his claim.

There are two provisions for dismissal of claims:

Ark. Code Ann. §11-9-702(a)(4):

If within six (6) months after the filing of a claim for compensation, no bona fide request for a hearing has been made with respect to the claim, the claim may, upon motion and after hearing, be dismissed without prejudice to the refiling of the claim within limitation periods specified in subdivisions (a)(1)-(3) of this section.

Rule 099.13:

The Commission may, in its discretion, postpone or recess hearings at the instance of either party or on its own motion. No case set for hearing shall be postponed except by approval of the Commission or Administrative Law Judge.

In the event neither party appears at the initial hearing, the case may be dismissed by the Commission or Administrative Law Judge, and such dismissal order will become final unless an appeal is timely taken therefrom or a proper motion to reopen is filed with the Commission within thirty (30) days from receipt of the order.

Upon meritorious application to the Commission from either party in an action pending before the Commission, requesting that the claim be dismissed for want of prosecution, the Commission may, upon reasonable notice to all parties, enter an order dismissing the claim for want of prosecution. (Effective March 1, 1982)

After review, I make the following findings of fact:

1. The Arkansas Workers' Compensation Commission has jurisdiction of this claim.
2. The claimant has advised that he does not wish to pursue his claim.
3. The claimant failed to appear at the dismissal hearing pursuant to Rule 099.13, after notifying the Commission he would not appear.

At the request of the respondents, this case is dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute pursuant to Rule 099.13.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
