

BEFORE THE ARKANSAS WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

CLAIM NO. F708516

ADAM K. WHITE

CLAIMANT

ALMATIS, INC.

RESPONDENT EMPLOYER

AMERICAN HOME ASSURANCE CO.

RESPONDENT CARRIER

ORDER AND OPINION FILED MAY 19, 2008

Hearing before Administrative Law JUDGE LINDA K. MARSHALL.

Claimant failed to appear.

Respondents represented by the HONORABLE JARROD PARRISH, Attorney at Law, Little Rock, Arkansas.

ISSUES

A hearing was held on May 8, 2008, to determine whether the above referenced claim should be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Although notified by certified mail, the claimant failed to appear.

The hearing was scheduled on respondents' Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Prosecution filed March 20, 2008, pursuant to Rule 13 of the Commission. A certificate of service was sent to the claimant and the Return Receipt revealed the claimant did not pick up the notice. The claimant did fax a written notice that he wanted his file closed.

After review of the documentary exhibits filed by the respondents, I find the claimant has not been diligent in pursuing his claim and, therefore, the respondents' motion is granted.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The claim was initiated by the filing of an AR-C with the Commission relating to an August 10, 2007, alleged injury. The claim was initially accepted and benefits were paid through January 2008. His medical care consisted of conservative treatment. He was paid temporary total disability benefits until Dr. Calhoun released him.

The respondents filed a motion to dismiss on March 20, 2008. The Commission sent a letter on March 25, 2008, asking for the claimant's position on the Dismissal Motion. There was no response from the claimant. The hearing notice was mailed on April 16, 2008, in accordance with Dillard v. Benton County Sheriff's Office, 87 Ark App. 379, 192 S.W.3d 287 (2004). The claimant then notified the Commission on April 18, 2008, that he wanted to close his file.

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

A review of the evidence shows the claimant has had ample opportunity to pursue his case but has notified the Commission he does not want to pursue his claim. The claimant has not requested a hearing within the last six months.

There are two provisions for dismissal of claims:

Ark. Code Ann. §11-9-702(a)(4):

If within six (6) months after the filing of a claim for compensation, no bona fide request for a hearing has been made with respect to the claim, the claim may, upon motion and after hearing, be dismissed without prejudice to the refiling of the claim within limitation periods specified in subdivisions (a)(1)-(3) of this section.

Rule 13:

The Commission may, in its discretion, postpone or recess hearings at the instance of either party or on its own motion. No case set for hearing shall be postponed except by approval of the Commission or Administrative Law Judge.

In the event neither party appears at the initial hearing, the case may be dismissed by the Commission or Administrative Law Judge, and such dismissal order will become final unless an appeal is timely taken therefrom or a proper motion to reopen is filed with the Commission within thirty (30) days from receipt of the order.

Upon meritorious application to the Commission from either party in an action pending before the Commission, requesting that the claim be dismissed for want of prosecution, the Commission may, upon reasonable notice to all parties, enter an order dismissing the claim for want of prosecution. (Effective March 1, 1982)

After review, I make the following findings of fact:

1. The Arkansas Workers' Compensation Commission has jurisdiction of this claim.
2. The claimant has not requested a hearing within the last six months pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. §11-9-702.
3. The claimant failed to appear at the dismissal hearing pursuant to Rule 099.13, as well as notifying the Commission he did not wish to pursue his claim.

At the request of the respondents, this case is dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute pursuant to Rule 099.13.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
