Decision of Administrative Law Judge: Affirmed and Adopted.

OPINION AND ORDER

The claimant appeals from a decision of the Administrative Law Judge filed March 29, 2004.

The Administrative Law Judge entered the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. The Arkansas Workers' Compensation Commission has jurisdiction of the within claim.
2. The employee-employer-carrier relationship existed at all relevant times between the claimant, Spherion Corporation and American Home Assurance Company until December 23, 2002.
3. The employee-employer-carrier relationship existed between the claimant, CS Fairview Group Inc. and Travelers Insurance Company at all relevant times beginning on December 23, 2003.
4. The claimant has failed to establish by a preponderance of the credible evidence that she sustained a compensable elbow injury arising out of her employment with either respondent employer.

We have carefully conducted a de novo review of the entire record herein and it is our opinion that the Administrative Law Judge's decision is supported by a preponderance of the credible evidence, correctly applies the law, and should be affirmed. Specifically, we find from a preponderance of the evidence that the findings of fact made by the Administrative Law Judge are correct and they are, therefore, adopted by the Full Commission.

Thus, we affirm and adopt the decision of the Administrative Law Judge, including all findings and conclusions therein, as the decision of the Full Commission on appeal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
