ORDER

The claimant, pro se, appeals an administrative law judge's pre-hearing order filed May 5, 2008. The administrative law judge found, among other things, that the case should be returned to general files. We have held on several occasions that a pre-hearing order is not a final, appealable order. Barbosa v. Curt Bean Lumber Company, Full Commission Opinion filed September 3, 2003 (F004211). As this claim is not yet ripe for consideration by the Full Commission, pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. §11-9-704, we hereby remand this case to the administrative law judge to schedule a timely hearing on the claimant's claim for additional benefits.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
